

Schedule of Northern Association Announced

PENNANT WINNERS BATTLE IN FIRST NORTHERN CONTEST

Washington Herald Team Faces R. P. Andrews April 29.

75 GAMES ON THE LIST

Season Closes July 27—Amateur Day Plans Already in Minds of Local Managers.

Two pennant winning teams of the same league will cross bats in the opening game of the Northern Association Monday, April 29. The Washington Herald aggregation facing the R. P. Andrews Paper Company's team.

The Washington Herald club won the title in 1910, while the Andrews team was the champion of the Commercial League last year. Both clubs have been strengthened a great deal, and should be able to put up a rattling good game. Manager Bell, of the newspaper men, will have a team on the field which will be able to give the best in the District a run. Jack O'Brien, who will be remembered for his good work in the box with the champions, will again be doing mound duty.

Manager Tipton, of the paper boys, says he will have a rattling good club, and as R. P. Andrews will back the team from the start, the Cardinals will be in the fight from the start.

Seventy-five games will be played by the league, the first game coming on April 29, and the closing contest, July 27. President Grant advocated the closing of the league on this date, so as to allow time for the playing off of postponed games prior to the starting of the post-season series.

Following is the official schedule:

April 29—Herald vs. Andrews.	May 1—Barnes vs. Park.	May 2—Herald vs. Barnes.	May 3—Park vs. Herald.	May 4—Herald vs. Barnes.	May 5—Barnes vs. Herald.	May 6—Herald vs. Barnes.	May 7—Barnes vs. Herald.	May 8—Herald vs. Barnes.	May 9—Barnes vs. Herald.	May 10—Herald vs. Barnes.	May 11—Barnes vs. Herald.	May 12—Herald vs. Barnes.	May 13—Barnes vs. Herald.	May 14—Herald vs. Barnes.	May 15—Barnes vs. Herald.	May 16—Herald vs. Barnes.	May 17—Barnes vs. Herald.	May 18—Herald vs. Barnes.	May 19—Barnes vs. Herald.	May 20—Herald vs. Barnes.	May 21—Barnes vs. Herald.	May 22—Herald vs. Barnes.	May 23—Barnes vs. Herald.	May 24—Herald vs. Barnes.	May 25—Barnes vs. Herald.	May 26—Herald vs. Barnes.	May 27—Barnes vs. Herald.
------------------------------	------------------------	--------------------------	------------------------	--------------------------	--------------------------	--------------------------	--------------------------	--------------------------	--------------------------	---------------------------	---------------------------	---------------------------	---------------------------	---------------------------	---------------------------	---------------------------	---------------------------	---------------------------	---------------------------	---------------------------	---------------------------	---------------------------	---------------------------	---------------------------	---------------------------	---------------------------	---------------------------

Manager Dismalver, of the G. P. O. team of the Departmental League, announced last night that the Printers would back up with the Aloysius club in an exhibition game Sunday morning in the District League Park. Manager Dismalver has signed a likely looking bunch of youngsters, and the Printers bid fair to be in the fight for the pennant from the start.

To-morrow afternoon, the Loffer team, of the Independence League, will face the Adams Express club, of the R. R. Y. M. C. A. League, in an exhibition battle on the R. R. diamond. Bryant, a big hurler from the Virginia League, will do the twirling for the Express lads, while Manager Hill will send McMahon and King Brady to the mound. The game will be called at 5 o'clock.

George Browne, manager of the Washington club in the United States League, yesterday sent transportation to twenty-one players, with instructions that they report in Richmond at once. It is expected that the men will be in Richmond either to-day or to-morrow. Practice will be held at Byrd Park, and Saturday a game will be played with the Richmond club in Suffolk.

That the "amateur day" stunt of Manager Griffith, of the Nationals, has been greeted with a great deal of pleasure by the amateurs of the District is made known by the many inquiries received regarding the date of conditions of the same. Manager Dismalver, of the G. P. O. aggregation, stated last night that his club would be in line with the best, and with their new uniforms, white, with brown trimmings, expect to land the top prize.

Central High School will face the Syracuse Pumping Station in a practice game this afternoon at Capital City Park. This is the Pumpers' first game, and the result will be watched with interest by the backers of the Capital City League aggregation.

Manager Cranston, of the G. H. White Company, has received a consignment of special bats for the "White" brand, the little center fielder on the Nationals. The same uniforms are also on hand, and are on exhibition in the store windows.

ODDS-ON THE TEAMS FOR COMING SEASON

AMERICAN LEAGUE.
Athletics.....	7 to 5
Detroit.....	5 to 3
Boston.....	7 to 3
New York.....	10 to 1
Cleveland.....	15 to 1
Chicago.....	20 to 1
Washington.....	50 to 1
St. Louis.....	100 to 1

NATIONAL LEAGUE.
Philadelphia.....	5 to 1
New York.....	2 to 1
Chicago.....	7 to 2
Pittsburgh.....	4 to 1
St. Louis.....	15 to 1
Brooklyn.....	20 to 1
Boston.....	100 to 1

TWINING DEFEATED.

Church of Reformation Takes Part Game by 5 to 2 Score.

The Church of the Reformation defeated the Twining Athletic Club, at Fifth Street and Florida Avenue Northeast, in a fast game, 5 to 2. Jeffries pitched eight innings, allowing only four hits, while the real feature of the game was the sensational running catch of Noll, of the winners. Score: Twining Athletics..... 2 Runs, 1 Hit, 1 Error. Church of Reformation..... 5 Runs, 2 Hits, 0 Errors.

Twining Athletics		Church of Reformation
Twining Athletics	2	Church of Reformation	5
Runs	1	Runs	2
Hits	1	Hits	2
Errors	1	Errors	0

G. U. LOSES STAR.

Renowned that Campuzi Will Not Return to Hilltop.

Earle Campuzi, the all-around athlete at Georgetown, may not return to complete his course at the law school. Campuzi left a short time before the Easter holidays and no word has been heard of him.

If Campuzi fails to return one of the most promising athletes who has ever entered the school will be lost. Campuzi entered Georgetown from Fordham Prep School, at which institution he established a big reputation as an all-around athlete. On the football squad he would have been mighty hard work to have kept him off the team had it not been for an injury which he sustained to his shoulder in the early part of the season. On the track team he ran the half mile in the meet at Convention Hall, and would have been of great assistance to the squad in the outdoor games which are to be held at Baltimore the early part of next month.

As a baseball player Campuzi would have surely landed a berth on the team, as his playing in the early practice entitled him to be considered for a position.

C. U. TEAM OFF.

Red and Black to Play W. & L. and V. M. I.

The Catholic University ball team, fifteen strong, with coach Moran, Manager Woods, and an assistant, leave this morning at 5:30 for Lexington, Va. They will arrive at 2:30, and a light practice will be gone through preparatory to meeting Washington and Lee the following day. The Red and Black squad has been putting in some stiff practice since the Harvard game, and while Washington and Lee will be a tough proposition, in the box, will be a tough proposition. Chief Greene is confident his team will be there with the stuff.

The Brooklanders will remain in Lexington overnight, and will meet V. M. I. the following day. The Red and Black team is most anxious to win this game in order to redeem the defeat of the football team last fall. The team will return to Washington on Sunday.

NOTABLE EVENTS IN BASEBALL.

APRIL 18.

131—Marquard, of the Giants, struck out eight Brooklyn players. St. Louis Nationals played the third game of the season.

132—Opening of both league seasons prevented by rain.

133—Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, christened after the English general who founded Pittsburgh.

134—"Buck" Freeman let out by Boston Americans.

135—Washington beat out one safe hit off Winter, Boston pitcher, four hits by Boston off Wolf, Tet Washington won, 1 to 0.

136—Henry Killilea sold the Boston American League club to John I. Taylor, of the Boston Globe.

DOWN THE ALLEYS.

NORTHWEST DUCKPIN LEAGUE.

Grass	Grass	Grass	Grass
Grass	Grass	Grass	Grass
Grass	Grass	Grass	Grass
Grass	Grass	Grass	Grass

ARCADIAN DUCKPIN LEAGUE.

Grass	Grass	Grass	Grass
Grass	Grass	Grass	Grass
Grass	Grass	Grass	Grass
Grass	Grass	Grass	Grass

POTOMAC COUNCIL (N. O. G.) LEAGUE.

Grass	Grass	Grass	Grass
Grass	Grass	Grass	Grass
Grass	Grass	Grass	Grass
Grass	Grass	Grass	Grass

NATIONAL CAPITAL LEAGUE.

Grass	Grass	Grass	Grass
Grass	Grass	Grass	Grass
Grass	Grass	Grass	Grass
Grass	Grass	Grass	Grass

Medal for Duchesne.

Tom Duchesne, the well-known Fall River wrestler, who has made so many friends here by his clean work on the mat and his pleasing personality, was presented with a gold watch for his admirers here last night. George King, manager of Joe Turner, made the presentation.

Harvard and Orioles Idle.

Baltimore, April 17.—The game between Harvard and the Baltimore Eastern League team was postponed to-day on account of rain.

OFFICERS CHOSEN BY POTOMAC CLUB

Local Organization Will Endeavor to Secure Middle States Regatta for This City.

The Potomac Boat Club, at its meeting last night in its clubhouse, elected officers and committees besides making plans for the ensuing year. The elections were well contested, but the final outcome proved satisfactory to all members. Crew officers were also chosen at last night's gathering and preparations for work begun.

Officers of the club elected for the coming year are: Charles E. Warden, president; William G. McKinney, vice president; Richard E. Gasech, secretary; F. Russell Underwood, treasurer; W. Spencer Biles, John J. Nolan, and Claude R. Zappone, board of directors. John Pindolow Evans was selected to captain the crew for the season, with G. Arthur Bell and John H. McKinney, first and second lieutenants, respectively.

Claude R. Zappone was commissioned delegate to the meeting of the Middle States Association in New York the early part of May in view of securing the Middle States regatta for Washington on Labor Day. It was largely through the efforts of Mr. Zappone that the national regatta in 1910 was given to this city, and it is hoped that he will again be able to bring the coveted meeting to the Capital City.

The crews will begin practice Sunday morning when about three or possibly four eights will report for try-outs. There is much veteran material at the Potomac Club, which will make an excellent foundation for one of the most successful seasons ever experienced by the local boatmen.

TRACK MEN OUT.

Eller and Chapman to Run in Baltimore Games.

Candidates for the Georgetown track team have been hard at work on the Hilltop field since Monday, and from present indications the team will have a good representation at the outdoor meet to be held at Baltimore May 4 under the South Atlantic Intercollegiate Association.

Bob Eller has not reported for practice, but it is hoped that this star performer will be on hand before the end of the week as the success of the team depends in a great measure to the work of Eller. Chapman may be in shape to run at this meet as his ankle is rapidly healing.

Brewer is a hard worker and will be heard from in the event. At the indoor meet at Convention Hall this youngster showed promise, and his work from now on will be watched with interest.

TURNER ACCEPTS DEFL.

Will Post Side Bet for Handicap Match with Dr. Roller.

Joe Turner, the wonderful local wrestler and claimant of the world's middleweight title, has accepted the deft of Dr. Roller, the Seattle physician, but instead of three men meeting Roller, Turner will post a side bet that the Seattle physician can not throw him twice within forty-five minutes.

This has been wired to Dr. Roller and an answer is expected any time today. Manager Park has agreed to put the bout on, and the early part of next week will most likely be the date of the battle.

Cadets Lose to Bucknell.

West Point, N. Y., April 17.—The Bucknell baseball team defeated the Cadets to-day by a score of 7 to 1. Hagan, of Bucknell, allowed only three hits.

Gould and Hahn Raquet Winners.

Philadelphia, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

Philadelphians, April 17.—Jay Gould and W. T. Hahn, of the Racquet Club, Philadelphia, won their way into the finals of the national court tennis doubles championship tournament by defeating Fulton Cutting and C. B. Cutting, of Cambridge, Mass. three sets to one.

GIANTS' SCRAPPY LEADER.

Manager McGraw, of the New York Giants, whose team showed true championship form in the opening game of the 1912 season, when the Giants walloped the Brooklyn superiors to the tune of 13 to 2.

Manager McGraw, of the New York Giants, whose team showed true championship form in the opening game of the 1912 season, when the Giants walloped the Brooklyn superiors to the tune of 13 to 2.

Manager McGraw, of the New York Giants, whose team showed true championship form in the opening game of the 1912 season, when the Giants walloped the Brooklyn superiors to the tune of 13 to 2.

Manager McGraw, of the New York Giants, whose team showed true championship form in the opening game of the 1912 season, when the Giants walloped the Brooklyn superiors to the tune of 13 to 2.

Manager McGraw, of the New York Giants, whose team showed true championship form in the opening game of the 1912 season, when the Giants walloped the Brooklyn superiors to the tune of 13 to 2.

Manager McGraw, of the New York Giants, whose team showed true championship form in the opening game of the 1912 season, when the Giants walloped the Brooklyn superiors to the tune of 13 to 2.

Manager McGraw, of the New York Giants, whose team showed true championship form in the opening game of the 1912 season, when the Giants walloped the Brooklyn superiors to the tune of 13 to 2.

Manager McGraw, of the New York Giants, whose team showed true championship form in the opening game of the 1912 season, when the Giants walloped the Brooklyn superiors to the tune of 13 to 2.

Manager McGraw, of the New York Giants, whose team showed true championship form in the opening game of the 1912 season, when the Giants walloped the Brooklyn superiors to the tune of 13 to 2.

Manager McGraw, of the New York Giants, whose team showed true championship form in the opening game of the 1912 season, when the Giants walloped the Brooklyn superiors to the tune of 13 to 2.

Manager McGraw, of the New York Giants, whose team showed true championship form in the opening game of the 1912 season, when the Giants walloped the Brooklyn superiors to the tune of 13 to 2.

Manager McGraw, of the New York Giants, whose team showed true championship form in the opening game of the 1912 season,